Welcome to the December 2009 edition of the Radio HF Internet Newsletter. Well, we've done it again. We've reached the end of another year; the 11th for the Radio HF Internet Newsletter. It's really hard to believe just how quickly the time goes by. I can't begin to imagine the thousands and thousands of people out there in the world who have browsed through and, hopefully, enjoyed and learned something from this Newsletter over the years.

Each month I do my best, hopefully with the continued input from some of our subscribers, to put together an edition that will offer something of interest to everyone. From time to time I like to try out something different just to see if there is any reaction. This month you're going to notice that I have included links to a couple of videos from "YouTube". What an incredible resource this is! Please let me know if you would like to continue to see this sort of thing from time to time in the Newsletter. It certainly opens up a whole new world of possibilities.

On a personal note this month, I would like to let everyone know that I am returning to the radio airwaves this month. Back in 1987, I created a weekly radio programme called "The International Radio Report" that began airing on CKUT-FM 90.3 MHz. from the campus of McGill University here in Montreal. For 17 years I co-hosted the show with Bill Westenhaver, presenting a weekly half-hour of news and information on the world of radio. When we gave up the show, two friends of ours, Janice and Steve Karlock stepped in to continue the show. The programme continues to air every Sunday morning, live, at 1530 UTC (10:30 am Eastern) on CKUT. It can also be heard live streaming and archived on the CKUT webpage at www.ckut.ca

Now, 22 years later, I am returning to sit in as co-host on the show. Janice is leaving for a teaching/training posting with the United Nations Mission in Southern Sudan. She will be away for 9 months. They have asked me to fill in and I have graciously accepted. So, if you have a chance, tune in and let Steve and I know what you think.

Our Monthly Special Zone features sites dealing with Christmas, Chanukah, Kwanzaa, the Universal Hour of Peace, Universal Human Rights Day & Month, and the Leap Second.

Our virtual voyage around the world, in the "Where in the World Zone", takes us to, where else at this time of the year, but Christmas Island. The Territory of Christmas Island is a territory of Australia in the Indian Ocean. It is located 2,600 kilometres (1,600 mi) northwest of the Western Australian city of Perth, 500 km (310 mi) south of the Indonesian capital, Jakarta, and 975 km (606 mi) ENE of the Cocos (Keeling) Islands.

With that, let's get on with this last edition of 2009. I'll take this opportunity to wish each and every one of you, your family and friends as well, a very happy Christmas/Holiday season and all the best for the coming New Year. I wish health, happiness, and peace to all.

THE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS

http://www.lightworks.com/MonthlyAspectarian/1997/December/1297-13.htm

This year I thought I would share with you an article from an unlikely source, Lightworks, a new-age astrological magazine. This article on the true meaning of Christmas was written and published in 1997 by Sonia Choquette. Amidst all the usual Christmas hoopla at this time of year, this might be a refreshing change of pace.

NORAD SANTA

http://www.noradsanta.org/

We feature this unique website every year at this time. It is presented in seven languages. The North American Aerospace Defence Command operates this service each year to track Santa Claus on his annual voyage around the world of Christmas Eve from the North Pole. As Christmas Eve approaches, log in early as the traffic load on this site is over the top, from families around the world wanting to follow Santa's progress. Be sure to share this one with your kids, grand-kids It's a wonderful annual tradition.

NEW FROM YAESU
THE FT-DX5000MP TRANSCEIVER

Are you ready? Yaesu announced the FT-DX5000MP in November. They are calling it "The Dawn of a New Era". Not much more has been said so far. However Yaesu engineers have achieved 112 dB dynamic range and an IP3 [3rd Order Intercept Point] of +40 dBm (CW, 500 Hz BW). Newly designed, extra sharp roofing filters for VFOA/Main receiver are selectable between 300 Hz (optional on some versions), 600 Hz, 3 kHz, 6 kHz and 15 kHz. Yaesu incorporates two of their famous custom designed 32 bit floating point DSP chips based on the TI TMS320C6727B runnning at 300 MHz ... one for VFO A and one for VFO B. Enjoy state of the art on the transmit side with a pair of reliable VRF150 FETS in a push-pull configuration yielding 200 watts (75 watts class A operation). Three eltro-luminesent subdisplays indicate sub frequency, graphical wave and menu functions. The rear panel features a 9 MHz IF out from VFO Main receiver. Other enhancements include: large multi-function meter, The pricing and availability is currently unknown. An SM5000 Station Monitor is optional on some versions.

Little more is known at this time. There is nothing on the Yaesu web site yet, but you can find some information on the Rig Reference site.at http://www.rigreference.com/rigs/view/4680/FTdx5000MP

As soon as more details are available, Radio HF will have them for you.

AIRCHEXX

http://airchexx.com/

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

A website dedicated to classic radio from the top 40 era (1955 present)? Sure, why not? There are few things that have affected our society more than radio. From the first time you heard a Beatles song to the breaking news about the first plane hitting the World Trade Center, from your favourite songs to major sporting events you probably heard about it first on the radio.

MILRADIO

AM FONE

http://amfone.net/Amforum/index.php

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

AMfone came into existence as we all know it in the year 2002. It is the combination of three websites that were started in the 90's. Brian WA5AM's - AM North America, Steve WB3HUZ's - The AM Window BBS, and Gary W2INR's - The AM Classifieds. The objective was to create as much available exposure as possible to promote the AM mode. We also wanted to have a place on the web for AMers world wide to meet and exchange ideas and information. AMfone has grown over the last 6 years. Currently the site is visited by over 40 countries and all US call districts. We have over 1700 registered users. We have a large database of information on Vintage and AM radio with over 50,000 posts on over 5700 topics not to mention over half a gig of static data.

THE LONGWAVE CLUB OF AMERICA

http://www.lwca.org/

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

The Longwave Club of America was organized in January, 1974 to promote monitoring and experimentation on frequencies below the AM broadcast band. Such activities have come to include hearing and identifying navigational beacons, recording and analyzing natural radio emissions at very low frequencies, transmitting under low power rules in the 1750 meter band, and later on other frequencies where such 'Part 15' activity is also permitted. The club is a not-for-profit organization, and dues are charged only to cover publication of the club bulletin, mailing, promotional and bookkeeping costs.

CUSHCRAFT ANTENNAS

Some of you may have noticed that the Cushcraft website disappeared offline several months ago. Well, MFJ Enterprises has launched the new Cushcraft Antennas webpage. MFJ Enterprises, Inc., Starkville, Mississippi has purchased Cushcraft Amateur Radio Antennas from Laird Technologies, St. Louis, Missouri effective July 31, 2009.
"We are excited to have the Cushcraft Amateur Radio Antennas name alongside our other five companies," said Martin F. Jue, President and founder of MFJ Enterprises, Inc. "This product line increases our ability to offer our customers a wide range of antenna options at different prices. Customers will be able to choose from Cushcraft Amateur Radio Antennas, Hy-gain and MFJ antennas through one source."

THE DEGREE CONFLUENCE PROJECT

http://confluence.org/

VIA Robert Ellis, Beaconsfield, Quebec

The goal of the project is to visit each of the latitude and longitude integer degree intersections in the world, and to take pictures at each location. The pictures, and stories about the visits, will then be posted here. The project is an organized sampling of the world. There is a confluence within 49 miles (79 km) of you if you're on the surface of Earth. We've discounted confluences in the oceans and some near the poles, but there are still 10,569 to be found. You're invited to help by photographing any one of these places.
